

33⁶

The diagram shows a technical drawing of a rectangular component. It features a central circular hole. The height of the component is indicated by a vertical dimension line on the left, labeled 33⁶. The width of the component is indicated by a horizontal dimension line at the bottom, labeled 117². The component has rounded corners and a thin border around the perimeter.

117²